

January 20, 2010

Dear Min,

On behalf of everyone here at Macy's Parade and Entertainment, we'd like to send an enthusiastic congratulations and a sincere thank you to you and your incredible group of talented, and not to mention adorable, dancers. Your spectacular performance in the 2009 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade was one of the highlights and contributed to the great success of our 83rd parade, making it a celebration to remember.

Your precise and beautiful choreography, matched only by your focus and enthusiasm from starting line to the NBC cameras, re-confirms what we already knew to be true—that the Chinese American Community Center has an unfaltering commitment to excellence and is truly one of the finest traditional Chinese folk dancing groups in the United States. It was a joy and an honor to have you as a participant in our Annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

We would love for you to stay in touch with us and keep us updated on your upcoming projects and competitions. We hope that perhaps one day in the future, you'll consider another appearance in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

Thank you again for being part of the 83rd Annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Please extend a personal thanks to your participants, administrators, and parents for a job well done, and best wishes for continued success.

With warmest regards,
Macy's Parade and Entertainment Group

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "W. Whatley".

Wesley Whatley

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Schermerhorn".

Bill Schermerhorn